LIFE REFLECTIONS

Joi-zhane Graham

Joi-ZHANE GRAHAM was born August 23, 1994 to the union of Henry and Lois Graham. She attended the St. Louis Public Schools where she graduated from Beaumont High School. She later attended ITT Tech until its closing. Upon its closing, she enrolled at the Vatterott College, studying to become a Medical Assistant until her death.

Joi-zhane had an outgoing personality. She was very intelligent and loved people and her children. She was a loving mother, daughter, and sister.

She had many nicknames. One of them being "Nae Nae" as she was affectionately called, and another "Ms. Hollywood", given to her by her uncle Maurice.

Nae Nae was a gifted artist that was reflected in many ways. She loved to draw, was a self taught beautician, had a flair with fashion and was creative with drawing.

She had many friends. If she could, there was nothing she wouldn't do for those that she was close to, or considered a friend.

On November 30, 2017 our dear Joi-zhane departed this life. She leaves to cherish her memory son, Joseph; two daughters, Jaiannah and Julianna; father, Henry Graham; mother, Lois Graham; two sisters, Carmen Darris and Cierra Graham; four brothers, Robert Cross III, Henry Darris, Christopher (Robin) Graham, and Donnell Graham; grandmother, Dorothy Darris; five aunts, Sharon Fields (Jerome), Pamela Brownlee (Vernell), Julia White (Dexter), Yvonne Spearman, and Pearlene (Lee) Seawood; six uncles, Maurice Darris, Joseph Graham, Robert Graham, Aaron (Adreanna) Graham, Clinton (Susan) Graham, and Andrew Graham; godfather, Marco Lester, and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road,
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in gloom-filled rooms,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little--but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low;
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me--but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know,
And busy your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me - but let me go.*

Forever...in our hearts.
