Life Reflections

DONNA ROLANDA BUFORD was born on June 3, 1955 in Kinloch, MO to Elsie Buford and Joseph Brooks.

In her early years, Donna attended Church of God in Christ. She graduated from Berkeley High School in 1971, and also attended Florissant Valley Community College.

Donna was a people-person. Therefore, it made sense that she had a lengthy career as a telephone operator at Southwestern Bell, as well as a customer service rep with Southwest Airlines.

Donna gave birth to her only child, a son, Richard Buford, in 1971. She married Marvin C. Jeffery in 1982. A woman who had a loving heart, especially for children, also raised Marvin Jeffery, Jr., and three adoptive daughters, Sarah, Sharonn, and Shawn.

Donna was outgoing, funny, very helpful and will be remembered as such.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Elsie Buford, but leaves behind her father, Joseph Brooks; son, Richard Buford (Yota); sisters, Sukari, Kayla, Annie; brothers, Raymond (Kay), Michael (Alice); grandsons, Lewis White, Dylan Buford; and a host of aunts, cousins, nieces and nephews.
